

DREAM

(Jessica Falk/Scott Bagget)

Once upon a time oooo I would cry
Looking here and there and everywhere, for a sign
Working through the fears

Smiling through the tears, and now I'm

Dancing on air, shouting out loud
I can't believe that this is my life
Flying so high, lost in the clouds
Now I don't have to dream at night

Waiting for the moon oooo to escape
Praying that the stars would hide the scars, of the day
Working through the fears

Laughing through the tears, and now I'm

Dancing on air, shouting out loud
I can't believe that this is my life
Flying so high, lost in the clouds
Now I don't have to dream at night

Oh I know what it means
All day long is a dream
Now the future is mine
So now I'm...

Dancing on air, shouting out loud
I can't believe that this is my life

Flying so high, lost in the clouds
Now I don't have to dream at night
