

FOREVER AND A DAY
(Jessica Falk & Scott Bagget)

It feels like heaven baby.
Every time you put your arms around me.
And as we watch the stars shine, I could stay here for eternity
Knowing this was meant to be

Chorus
Days are passing life moves on
There's no time to hesitate
This feels so right, how can it be wrong
We will always be this way
In love, forever and a day

Oh when you call me baby.
There's no other sound I'd rather hear
It's like a symphony, words of love are ringing crystal clear
Playing softly in my ear

2Ch:
Days are passing, life moves on
There's no time to, hesitate
This feels so right, how can it be be wrong
We will always be this way
In love, forever and a day.

This crazy world thinks that nothing stays together
I know we'll make it last somehow
Cause in your eyes, oh I can see forever
Love is here, love is here right now

solo

Oh when I see you baby, I can't help but smile and start to stare
Cause I'm so thankful for, all the love that you so freely share
Like an answer to a prayer

3Ch:
Days are passing, life moves on
There's no time to, hesitate
This feels so right, how can it be wrong
We will always be this way
In love, forever and a day – whoo!
